

Kholud bint Fawaz AbdulAziz Altamimi

Associate Professor in curricula and teaching methods-Collage of Education

Since 1436, she has held any leadership positions at Imam Mohammed bin Saud University, including Vice Dean of Development and Quality, then Dean of Development and Quality . She also served as an advisor to the University Vice Rectorate for Educational Affairs , and then as an advisor to His Excellency the University President, and general supervisor of King Abdullah City for Female Students.

- Chairmanship and membership of several committees related to; developing quality systems for the learning process, quality management, besides developing strategic plans and building organizational regulatory guides.

External auditor for higher education programs and institutions based on quality standards and academic certification. Internal quality auditor certified by King Abdulaziz National Quality Award.

- Provided contributions in developing quality and accreditation and academic standards in public and higher education, besides designing tools to measure and evaluate the quality of performance and the quality of the educational process.
- Provided contributions to the implementation of several training programs in Saudi universities in the field of quality assurance of institutions and academic and training programs, curricula, teaching and learning processes, training, evaluation and developing teaching performance
- Supervising and discussing numerous of scientific theses.